This South-Facing, Four Bedroom, Detached Villa in Pueblo Bravo is located in a pretty Spanish urbanisation of Ciudad Quesada. The main shops and amenities are only a ten minutes walk away, and the nearest beaches at Guardamar are less than a 10 minutes drive. This stunning villa consists across one level of a separate fully fitted kitchen; a separate dining room; opening out to the spacious living room, which leads through to the glazed in terrace area, an ideal winter room over looking the beautiful garden and swimming pool; four double bedrooms, the master being en suite; and a family bathroom. Outside is a partly gravelled & tiled garden with various plants and trees but easy maintenance due to the irrigation system; it also has a private pool, access to the roof top solarium where there are views of the salt lakes, a car port & a storeroom. This really is a wonderful property including many different extras...
